Dear George,

On behalf of the Office for Racial Justice I want to thank you for all that you did to support and promote this year's Unity Rally. We are most grateful for the role you played in helping us to get Mr. Dick Gregory as our keynote speaker. It was truly the piece de resistance!

Thanks, George, for sending me the tape of the radio interview and for naming me to the advisory board of N.A.R.R. I am honored to join you and such notables as Mr. Gregory and Rev. Willie Barrow in this great work..

You are a true inspiration and someone that I am honored to know and to work with as we struggle to free our church and society of the sin of racism.

Sincerely yours for Racial Justice,

Anita Baird, DHM
Director
